6. REZAS' 12

The 1st International Colloquium on "Water resources in the arid and semiarid regions: challenges and prospects. Case of the African continent" at Beni Mellal (Morocco) 14, 15 & 16 November 2012

It is the first Colloquium organized with Beni Mellal University (Morocco). It was successfully featured by many facts, such as:

- More than 300 geoscientists attended the meeting, coming from Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, France, Libya, Cameroon, Senegal, Palestine, Germany and Jordan
- It was supported by the University of Beni Mellal, and several local institutions

- Presentations are currently processed and planned to be published in a special issue of JHMER (<http://jhmer.univ-rennes1.fr>) in 2013
- The next International Colloquium will be held during 2014, several universities are making their decision to present an offer to the scientific committee
- It was a great opportunity to boost Geo Africa Sciences Society (GASS), and one of the imminent results is to launch a local chapter of GASS, most probably a national one at the Moroccan scale.

Voici le rapport final de l'année 2012

Le 1er colloque international REZAS'12 sur le thème "Ressources en eau dans les zones arides et semi-arides : enjeux et perspectives. Cas du Continent Africain" à Béni Mellal (Maroc) le 14, 15 & 16 Novembre 2012.

C'est le 1er colloque international co-organisé avec l'Université de Béni Mellal (Maroc). Il a été un succès à plusieurs égards comme :

- Plus de 300 géoscientifiques ont assisté venant du Maroc, Algérie, Tunisie, Lybie, Cameroun, Sénégal, Palestine, Allemagne et Jordanie
- Il a eu le support de l'Université de Béni Mellal et de plusieurs institutions locales
- Les exposés sont en cours d'édition et sont planifiés pour être publiés dans un numéro spécial de JHMER (<http://jhmer.univ-rennes1.fr>) en 2013
- Le prochain Colloque international aura lieu en 2014, plusieurs universités sont entrain de préparer leur décision et proposition au comité scientifique
- C'était une grande opportunité pour stimuler la Société Géo Africa Sciences (GASS), et un des premiers résultats concrets a été la préparation pour créer la filiale locale de GASS, très probablement nationale, à l'échelle de tout le Maroc.

7. Status of the Geo Africa Sciences Forum in LinkedIn
